Haulotte Group appoints Emmanuel KURANTY as head of its Chinese subsidiary

Opened in Shanghai since July 2006, the Chinese subsidiary is the fruit of the Haulotte Group worldwide development strategy.

Haulotte Group pursues its development logic and reinforces its leadership position in Europe and its worldwide number 3 ranking. The Group, with M€ 519.3 turnover, will publish the annual results 2006 on March 27th.

Emmanuel KURANTY has joined the Group as Chinese subsidiary manager to assert the Haulotte brand name in the country. Previously working as an electronic branch Business Development Manager in Europe and China, Emmanuel Kuranty, under the responsibility of Bernie Kiekebosch, Asia area manager, will have the assignment to define the sales strategy, and implement the whole Haulotte range in China:

- A complete range of aerial work platforms (over 50 models)
- The HTL range of telehandlers
- The Multijob range, full-rotating backhoe loader (360°)

Haulotte Group is established on Asia-Pacific market with 3 strategic subsidiaries in Australia, New Zealand and Singapore. For 2007, the Group plans to open one other agency in Asia. Haulotte Group has now 18 subsidiaries worldwide and will open on first half-year 2007, two new plants in Spain and Romania, which will join the 3 existing French plants.
